VERDI AIDA

Opera & Ballet International proudly presents an Ellen Kent production with international soloists, highly-praised chorus and full orchestra.

Starring the French soprano Olga Perrier* and the International soprano Alyona Kistenyova* as Aida and Liza Kadelnik*, the celebrated mezzo-soprano from the Romanian National Opera, as Amneris.

Aida, the grandest of all Ellen Kent's operas is a stunning new traditional production, boasting an impressive new set built by Set-Up Scenery in the UK, who also build sets for the Royal Opera Covent Garden.

In Aida, the splendour of Egypt is set against the grandeur of the Coliseum of Rome with Ellen Kent's direction influenced by the ancient Greek dramas of Euripides and symbolising the powerful religious hold of the priests of Egypt. This tragic story of war, jealousy and revenge at whose heart is the doomed love of the beautiful Ethiopian slave girl, Aida, and the Egyptian hero, Radames, is brought to life in a production set against one of the greatest pieces of music Verdi ever wrote with the well-known arias Celeste Aida, Ritorna Vincitor and the classic Triumphant March featuring a temple dance, cascades of glittering gold and amazing fire performers.

Sung in Italian with English surtitles.

With their rich unusual vocal harmonies skilfully blending their voices in a distinctive and unforgettable style that takes English roots into a radical new direction, Coope, Boyes and Simpson are not afraid to tackle any subject. Join the Moscow Philharmonic in an evening of Russian romantic fantasy and tragedy: the bitter-sweet joy and heart-break of Prokofiev's ballet Romeo & Juliet and Shostakovich's First Violin Concerto with violinist Natalia Lomeiko.

This music seethes with anger, numbness and a devil-may-care abandonment, heard alongside an early Rimsky rarity: Sadko tells the story of a minstrel who set all the sea creatures dancing.

'Natalia Lomeiko is one of the most brilliant of our young violinists.'

Simple Minds

Acoustic Live 2017

Simple Minds are responsible for some of the most innovative and enduring anthems in rock music and are widely regarded as one of the best live bands in the world.

As a group who formed in the punk era and found their mojo through a shared love of Bowie, Kraftwerk and electronic dance, Simple Minds are not natural acoustic adventurers, but they have done a remarkable job on their latest album Simple Minds Acoustic, adding fresh nuance to brilliant songs without trampling on sacred memories.

On taking Simple Minds Acoustic on the road Jim Kerr says: 'The concert stage is where Simple Minds do their best work, it is where we forged our distinctive live reputation. For that reason we look forward immensely to taking Simple Minds Acoustic out on tour. Don't be fooled by the acoustic tag however! These shows will be as energetic and passionate as ever.'
